

Q: What's changing on Microsoft Partner Community?

The overall design and Community structure.

Q: Is the terminology for content types different on the new Microsoft Partner Community?

No, the terminology will be the same as before.

Q: There are a few boards that I can't see. What is happening?

We will reorganize the content in a more intuitive fashion, which should allow you access any data easier than before the redesign.

Please bear in mind for certain groups / boards you need to become a member in order to have visibility.

Q: Will some posts or boards be deleted with the redesign?

There are some outlier posts/boards that will be archived (not deleted) as they are either empty/low activity, but the bulk of the content will remain unchanged.

Q: As a user, what do I need to do after the Redesign go-live?

Sit back, relax and enjoy the new Microsoft Partner Community experience.

Q: Will I get the opportunity to provide feedback after go-live?

Yes, feedback is encouraged.

If there are going to be things that don't operate as we envisioned, or implications that we hadn't planned for, let us know and rest assured: when things are broken, we'll fix them.

Q: Will the URL for MPC change?

The URL is not changing, as we are just changing the look and feel of the current site.

Q: Do I need to do anything to get access to the new community?

Please sign in with your credentials.

Q: Who do I contact if I have a question regarding this redesign?

Please use our feedback forum for any feedback or questions.